Keynote Speaker

Terry Schooley is a former House Representative of Delaware and former State President of NC NOW. Moving to Fayetteville, NC, in 1977 she became active in the local NOW chapter, eventually serving as State President and then the Coordinator of the North Carolina ERA Countdown Campaign. Her first office was in her laundry room and she carried all her work in a laundry basket. Terry has now retired and moved to Greensboro with her husband, Kit. One daughter and family live in Durham and a second daughter and family reside in Atlanta. They spend their time traveling and babysitting.
